THE FAIR

To-Day is Our Opening Day in Holiday
Goods.

BE AN EARLY BIRD.

Don't wait until the last moment to buy your Christmas Goods. It's a mistake to put it off any longer, for goods cannot be replaced in time this season.
Delays are disappointing both to you and to us.

BEST TOY VALUES WE EVER HAD
is the common remark of our customers.

BOOKS! BOOKS! BOOKS!

SPECIAL CUT PRICES ON BOOKS for to-day, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, only. These books are chosen titles and the best books ever put on the market for the price, and as we bought them less than publishers' prices our customers can prepare for a surprising four days sale of books. Put up in lots of six, elegant cloth bound books, regular price 25c each, with gold titles, and some with gold tops, the six books for 45c. At the price named we cannot vary the assortment.

HOME SERIES

of selected Christmas books for boys and girls, handsomely bound in new designs and colors, 32 pages richly illustrated, and cheap at 15c each, now on sale at 9c each, also a line of picture books from 1c and upwards. In this same purchase an assortment of Humorous Books, such as "Peck's Bad Boy and his Pa," "Samantha at Saratoga," and others, the 50c kind at 25c each.

GREEN TAG SALE FRIDAY.

Every article bearing a green tag will be greatly reduced in price for this day only.

HERE'S HOW I FIGURE.

He who sells on a small profit for cash sells quickly. He who sells quickly for cash sells much. He who sells quickly sells much for cash on a small profit, and earns little on much, and much on many.

The Green Tags displayed will show you how cheap you can purchase goods here Friday.

THE FAIR.

AN Indiana jury has fixed ninety days in the county jail as an adequate punishment for a miner found guilty of murder. This is, in truth, a delicate compliment to Indiana's governor, who regards assassination as a matter of too small moment to warrant even a trial of those responsible for it. — Louisville Times.

To Cure a Cold in One Day

CUPID'S ARROW.

The marriage of Mr. Richard K.
McCarney and Miss Margery Turney will take place at the Second Presbyterian church, in this city, on Tuesday, December 30th.

The marriage of Miss Bessie Thomas and Mr. Frank P. Walker took place at the Christian Church, Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock. The church never looked more beautiful with its decorations of ferns, palms and growing plants. Upon the altar were arranged large tripple mirrors which reflected the wedding party as it stood in front of the altar. There were no attendants, but the ushers acted as groomsmen. They were: Messrs.
John Brennan, Ford Brent, Will Webb and Dr. M. H. Daily. The bride carried white chrysanthemums and each groomsmen wore a white chrysanthemum. The bride wore a handsome and striking traveling gown of dark blue with hat to match. The presents numbered about one hundred and seventy-five which, attests the popularity of the young couple. Among the presents was a handsome case of silver, presented by the ushers, and the mother of gro- m furnished a suite of rooms as her present. Mr. and Mrs. Walker left on the three thirty train for a visit to relatives of the groom in Chicago and upon their return will board with Mrs. Elizabeth Walker, on High street.
